FATAL SHOOTING.

Vess Jobe Charged With Killing Charles Adams.

Difficulty Occurred Saturday Night, on Catt Creek, This County, at a Religious Gathering.

In a difficulty which occurred on Saturday night last near the house of the widow of Floyd Pennington, on Cat, this county, Charles Adams, son of Cephas Adams, received wounds from which he died on the following day. As is usual in such cases the story of the homicide is a many-sided one, and what shall be told in this paper is what has been related by those who are presumed to know whereof they speak. A large crowd had gathered at the place for the purpose of holding religious services. The funeral of Mr. Pennington was to be preached on the Sunday following, the Saturday night meeting was a sort of preparatory one. The shooting occurred near what is called the Cooksey Point, near Polly's Chapel. The trouble arose over some previous difficulty, and began in the house, but was ended some distance from it. The affray had not progressed more than a minute before two shots were fired from a pistol, and both bullets entered Adams' back. It is thought that Adams did not really know who fired the fatal shots, as he asked the bystanders who did it. Vess Jobe, son of Harve Jobe, Jr., and 19 years old is charged with the murder, but it is believed by many that a brother of Jobe did the work.

One version of the affair is that while Willie Jobe and Adams were quarreling Vess Jobe came up behind Adams and shot him in the back. Up to this hour no arrests have been made, rumors to the contrary notwithstanding. It is said that the man charged with the crime has left the country.

Odd Fellows Celebrate.

The coming of two officers of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky Odd Fellows to Louisa last Friday evening was a very interesting and pleasant event. Louisa lodge was desirous of celebrating in an appropriate manner the birth of the Order in America, and to this end they secured the attendance of Grand Master Lynn T. Gruber, of Shelbyville, and Grand Secretary R. G. Elliott, of Louisville to grace their regular meeting and a banquet which would follow the ceremonies of initiation. The grand officers arrived on the evening C. and O. train and were met by a reception committee which consisted of C. E. Henaley, W. N. Sullivan, Wm. Justice, H. E. Evans and J. M. Elswick. By this committee the distinguished gentlemen were escorted to the Brunswick hotel.

By the time the hour for meeting had arrived Odd Fellows hall was crowded with local and visiting members of the ancient order. The grand officers were welcomed to Louisa and the lodge by Brother H. C. Sullivan. Mr. Sullivan is never weak on such occasions, and on this particular evening he is said to have been at his best. Both Grand Master Gruber and Grand Secretary Elliott are said to have made beautiful and instructive addresses. All present were greatly pleased with what they heard from the lips of the representatives of the Grand Lodge and will not soon forget their coming.

At the close of the "work" and the addresses, refreshments, abundant and toothsome, were served, thus fittingly closing an occasion long to be pleasantly remembered by all who participated in its various features.

MAN GONE TO PARKERSBURG.

The Rev. W. L. Reid, pastor of the M. E. Church, South, went to Parkersburg, W. Va., Monday, to attend to business pertaining to the Church. Mrs. Reid, who accompanied him as far as Huntington, returned Monday evening.

Success Followed Her.

"A 14-year old Irish girl at Ashland quit school and went out to win her own way. She had no influential relatives to give her a soft snap. She applied to Judge John F. Hager for a position as stenographer in his office. The little bright-eyed girl impressed him and she was given a trial. That was several years ago. That little girl is now a woman and she held her position. In addition to being one of the best corporation lawyers in Kentucky, she has the distinction of being the only woman that is a railroad director. When the Shelby Creek Railroad Company was organized she was made a director and her advice is sought on all matters pertaining to that road's welfare."

This is a very pretty little story, and the fact that it is true does not detract from its beauty. It is also a fact that similar honorable and lucrative positions are within the reach of hundreds of thousands of other girls, Irish, German and "United States." But such places are to be attained only by patient, well directed effort, industry and right living. The young lady who is the subject of the foregoing sketch laid the foundation of her success by getting at good English education. This, also, is within the grasp of any girl who will work for it. This she did not get by forming one of a reception committee to meet trains, or to be one of those who think it necessary to await the arrival of the Sunday evening mails at the postoffice. The young lady was quite well aware that the trains would come and go without her presence, and that the arrival and distribution of the mails did not depend upon her presence. Waiting for trains did not make her a railroad director, and she did not become a corporation lawyer through paying more attention to bouquets than to her books.

RAISED FIVE PER CENT.

State Board of Equalization Increases Our Taxes.

When the State Board of Equalization completes its work this year the total value of all property in Kentucky assessed for taxation probably will be $550,000,000, an increase over last year of $22,000,000.

The value of all property last year after equalization, was $528,000,000. The board has passed on nearly all the counties in the State, forty being let off without any raise and fifty-two being given raises of from 5 to 25 per cent.

Boyd and Lawrence counties have been passed upon finally and each gets the same raise on all kinds of property, that is, personal, town lots and lands each raised five per cent. Among the counties not increased are Floyd, Johnson, Knott, Martin and Morgan.

He Made Bad Jump.

Lee Wright, a young man from Morgan county, jumped from a west bound N. and W. train at Port Gay last Saturday afternoon, sustaining a fractured ankle and a badly cut head. The train was a double header, going at a rapid rate, and the wonder is that the young man was not killed outright. He was picked up and carried to the freight house, where his injury was attended to by Dr. A. W. Bromley, the company surgeon. By some means not very well understood the unfortunate young man was left to lie in the freight house until Sunday afternoon, when he was brought on a stretcher to this city. Some kindly disposed persons contributed money to send him to Morgan county, and he was placed on the afternoon C. and O. and carried as far as Paintsville.

Wright had been trying to reach his home from some point down the river and the day before the accident he boarded an east bound N. and W. freight, expecting to get off at Port Gay, but he was carried to some point beyond. When he caught a return freight he probably did not notice the rate of speed when Port Gay was reached, and his effort to effect a stop resulted in painful disaster.

MILLIONS

Will be Spent in Big Sandy Territory.

Something About the Enormous Expenditures Already Begun in this Part of the State.

The Courier Journal says:

Plans for an extension of the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad through many of the counties along the Big Sandy division, in Eastern Kentucky, as well as the double tracking of the system from Pikeville to Cincinnati have practically been completed, and it is expected that within the next few months every county in the Big Sandy Valley will have an outlet to the coal and timber markets of the world. It was learned from an official of the road recently that since the properties of the Chesapeake & Ohio were acquired by Edwin Hawley, of New York, and Frank Turnbull, of Chicago, the new owners have given strong evidence of their faith in the future commercial possibilities of the mountains of Eastern Kentucky, and to that end have planned to build branches of the road throughout that section of the State.

One of the first moves to be made by the new owners was to acquire a charter for the building of what is to be known as the Lavis Fork railway, to run from the confluence of Russell and Lavis Creek, up Lavis creek to Grundy, Va., a distance of fifty miles. This road will traverse one of the highest coal and virgin timber tracts to be found anywhere in the United States. According to the charter recently obtained, Garrett B. Wall, for many years real estate agent of the Chesapeake & Ohio road and for the past few years assistant to George W. Stevens, president of the company, is to be president of the Lavis Fork road. The Big Sandy division of the Chesapeake & Ohio at the present time runs from Catlettsburg to a point beyond Pikeville to the breaks of the Big Sandy, a distance of 120 miles. From this point a survey has been made and the grading done on an extension which will give an outlet to the coast at Charleston, S. C., and Savannah, Ga., and when the company completes a bridge over the Ohio River at Pt. Pleasant, O., the Chesapeake & Ohio will have a direct line from Toledo, O., on the lakes, to the Atlantic coast.

Among other improvements and extensions planned, is the building of the Shelby Creek branch of the road, a distance of thirty miles, through Pike and Letcher counties. This branch will run through 100,000 acres of coal and timber lands owned by the Consolidated Coal Company and over 1,000,000 acres of undeveloped coal and timber land will be tributary to this branch of the road. Surveys for branches up Millers Creek, a distance of six miles, and up Marrowbone Creek, a distance of twelve miles, also have been made.

Both of these branches will run through valuable coal and timber lands which are now being developed, and it is planned to have the roads built and ready for operation by the time the mines are in working order. The Millers Creek branch will run from Van Lear, a station on the Big Sandy division, in Johnson county, crossing the Big Sandy River at Van Lear. The coal in this section of the State is regarded as one of the finest grades of splint coal to be found in the world, while on the Marrowbone branch the product now being mined is considered a fine grade for coking purposes.

Believing that the future development of coal and timber lands in the mountains of Eastern Kentucky along the Big Sandy River will amply reward them for the money expended in preparing for that development, Messrs. Hawley and Turnbull have instructed their representatives to go ahead with the work of building all of the branch roads necessary to meet the future demands of the section, as well as the double tracking of the system. It is planned to have the road from Ashland to Cincinnati and from Pikeville to Catlettsburg double tracked by December 1, 1913. These improvements, as well as all of the extensions planned, are located wholly in Kentucky, and millions of dollars will be expended by the Chesapeake and Ohio road in this State within the next two years.

Love Will Find A Way.

Green Holcomb, 18, and Effie, Lon sure, 15, both of Greenup county, passed through Louisa Wednesday of last week, hunting some one to issue a license to wed and a preacher who would marry them. They kept on trying until they got over the mountains into Letcher county and sought the county clerk. They told their tale of love and hard hearted parents. It was enough to melt the heart of a graven image, but the clerk was obdurate, and they are probably still on the hunt. They went by rail to Elkhorn City and there they procured a rig with which to proceed to what they thought would be the end of the journey. They persisted in their fruitless efforts to find what they wanted. What they really needed was a first class spanking.

Railroad Work Up Sandy.

It is reported that Langhorne & Langhorne have the contract for building fifty miles of railroad connecting the Clinchfield & Ohio with the Big Sandy division of the Chesapeake & Ohio. The route leads through the Breaks of Sandy and will be very heavy work.

The work on the Shelby Creek road in Pike county, is just now getting fairly started. The bad weather has been very much in the way. The grading is being done by Langhorne and subcontractors. Skene & Richmond have begun the concrete work.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Seventeen-Year-Old Girl Loses Her Life by Fire.

On Wednesday of last week a young daughter of Henderson Sparks, who lives not far from Ulysses, this county, was burned so badly that death ensued the following day. She was helping burn brush in the field, and her clothing was set on fire by the blazing pile. She was 17 years of age.

Luella was the only daughter of Mr. Sparks. She was a member of the United Baptist Church. She lived a few hours after the accident and suffered terribly.

New Oil Well Located.

The Busseville Oil and Gas Company has selected a location for its first well and work will start as soon as the rig and machinery can be put in place.

The location is on the farm of W. D. O'Neal, Sr., within sight of the public road leading to Blaine. Tom Hays will probably have the contract for drilling the well. The machinery used on the Lee Garred well will be employed on this one.

The stock in this company has had a good sale. The promoters are very hopeful of getting good wells on this property.

THROWN FROM A HORSE.

On Thursday last Mrs. L. T. McClure, of this city, was thrown from a horse and was quite seriously shaken up. She had been to Fountain Park, a short distance up the "Point" and was returning, when her horse, in trying to join some other horses made a sudden jump and its rider fell heavily to the ground. She was unable to rise until assistance was procured, when she was put into a buggy and taken home. She was laid up several days but is now able to be out.

CITY OF JENKINS.

Will Break the Record for Rapid Growth.

Mountain City to be Built by Coal Company in Eastern Kentucky Will be a Wonder.

Fairmont, W. Va., April 25.—Local operators claim that the coal market as relates to this region is showing signs of improvement. Actual shipments to the lakes have started and that increased business is showing up right along.

The Pittsburg and other districts are still complaining about the condition of the market, but the operators have hopes for recovery before fall of this year.

The executive, selling and operating officials of the Consolidation Coal Company, who have returned from their trip to the Elkhorn region in Kentucky, which is the site of their latest development, report a satisfactory week spent in the mountains of that state, and that general plans for the development of that field were agreed and decided upon.

It is understood that the company will set the contract for from 1,000 to 2,000 houses, the erection of these to extend over a period of three years.

The Sandy Valley and Elkhorn Railroad Company is building 28 miles of first-class track from the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad at Shelby to the center of the field at the head of Elkhorn. The Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company is building 80 miles of high-grade track to connect its line at Jackson to the center of the Elkhorn coal field. The completion of both of these roads is promised in from 12 to 14 months, at which time the Consolidation Coal Company expects to have its mines so developed as to immediately begin the shipping of coal.

John A. Smith, formerly of this city, now manager of the company's Kentucky division, will have charge of the development of the Elkhorn field. He will be assisted by L. B. Abbott, former chief engineer of the Maryland division; C. E. Scott, chief of the testing department; also representatives of the purchasing, power and mechanical, supply and merchandise departments. The abstracting and legal work, is being done under the direction of the law firm of Hager & Stewart. The engineering is under the charge of Madison Dunlap, of Paintsville, Ky. L. B. Abbott will be the chief engineer.

The desire of the company to have its mines and organization in such shape as to ship coal by the time that the railroads are completed constitutes an enormous undertaking for the operating officials, for all the material has to be hauled by wagons.

A national bank has been organized and will be in operation within 30 days. It is located in the central town, which has been named Jenkins, in honor of Director George C. Jenkins, of the Consolidation Coal Company, and Michael Jenkins, a Director of Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company. The town of Jenkins will have, besides the bank, a large number of residences, a Y. M. C. A. building, central repair shops, supply buildings, stores, offices, places of amusement and other buildings.

The company's power plant will be located at this point, and it is designed to produce 10,000 kw. This plant as now projected will contain steam turbine driven generators, with boiler plant and will also be equipped with the necessary auxiliaries to operate it. Three sawmills are now in operation cutting timber taken from the property. A brick yard and an immense lime kiln have been started. The location of 14 mines was decided upon and the work has already been started on driving the headings, grading for the side tracks and other necessary work.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Cummings is critically ill with whooping cough.

An Object Lesson.

Elijah B. Brown, son of Hezekiah Brown, who is one of the foremost farmers and business men of this section, was in Louisa, last Saturday. Mr. Brown, not yet 20 years old, is entirely blind. When a mere child one eye was so seriously injured that the sight was lost and through a sympathetic affection the other eye soon followed. Notwithstanding this heavy handicap the young man is a fine pianist and tuner, having been educated at the Kentucky School for the Blind, Louisville. He has a good income from his teaching and tuning, and he is now agent for a good piano company whereby he adds materially to his income. He lives with his parents at Henrietta, Johnson county, near Chestnut station, C. and O. railway.

When we look at some young men we could mention we are led to think that if they had lost their sight when young they might make something of themselves, becoming producers as well as consumers.

Mr. W. J. Vaughan Honored.

Mr. W. J. Vaughan, of Louisa, Field Worker Kentucky Sunday School Association, was called to Richmond, Va., last week to attend the Virginia State Sunday School Convention. Mr. Vaughan addressed the Convention, and the address and his reputation as a worker in the Sunday school cause made such a favorable impression upon the association that, without his asking it elected him State Secretary. The position is a very prominent and responsible one, and Mr. Vaughan's election is quite an honor. He has the offer under advisement. Mr. Vaughan is one of the three Kentuckians who are announced among the speakers for the International Convention of Sunday schools which will meet in San Francisco in next July. He will attend this great meeting.

CASE REVERSED.

Court of Appeals Decides Important Point About Roads.

The Court of Appeals has reversed the Lawrence Circuit Court in the damage case of Gus Moore against Lawrence county.

Mr. Moore sued the county for $200 damages caused to his land by the construction of a culvert in such manner as to discharge water upon his premises in greater quantities than the natural flow.

The lower court held that the county is not liable for damages from this cause. The case is remanded for "other proceedings consistent herewith."

Attorneys, W. D. O'Neal for appellant, James W. Hinkle for appellee.

May Be Fatally Hurt.

John See, aged 25, of Portsmouth, O., was seriously and perhaps fatally injured at that place last Friday. He is a brakeman on the N. and W. and has been employed about four years. On the day named he was engaged as usual, when he was struck by the pilot beam of a moving train, receiving injuries which will probably cause his death. Mr. See is a son of Venoy See, deceased, and a nephew of Charles See, of Louisa. The present injury is the first he had sustained in his four years service as brakeman. He is an excellent young man, sober and industrious. He married a daughter of the Rev. Mr. Sparks and their home is at Clifford station.

FOR RELIEF OF LOUISA CHURCH

Congressman W. J. Fields has introduced a bill in the House providing for an appropriation of $2000 for the relief of the M. E. Church, of Louisa. The basis of this claim is the use and damages to the property at the hands of the Union soldiers during the Civil War.

The court house and the M. E. Church, South, at this place, also suffered in the same way at the same time. The buildings were badly abused and the damages should be paid for all this by the government.

ADDAMS! ADDAMS! SO SAY WE ALL, GENTLEMEN!

The Shelbyville Sentinel says:

Is there a Democrat who believes that if Senator McCreary gets the gubernatorial nomination, the chances of his party's success will be in doubt? Is it not the part of wisdom, therefore, for him to turn to some one who can bring the people to victory? William Addams, of Harrison county, is such a candidate. Place your banner in his hands and he will give you the hope and enthusiasm that must land us all winners. A few weeks since we were left floundering, feeling that there were none to make an active fight to oppose Senator McCreary for the nomination, but since the manly stand and clear-cut statements of Mr. Addams, our doubts are at last thrown aside and hope has taken the place of our doubts in our party success.

There be times when our darkest periods are just before the dawn, and democracy in Kentucky appears to have passed through them. From now on every one should feel, with such a man as Addams to lead, that success must surely come.

Mr. Addams has a number of relatives and friends in "Old Shelby" and though this county is not Mr. McCreary's district yet it can be counted on to support the Harrison county man who can land the party triumph in November.

Let us hope our party leaders, Addams is a man we can rely on, and let us all, therefore, get together and be for Addams. Let us all say, "Party success," and Mr. Addams will be elected. So say we all, gentlemen!

THE END OF TUBERCULOSIS

Care For Hopeless Cases.

By A. ADOLPHUS KNOPP, M. D.

The cure has been made, and I have heard it from medical men, that it was a waste of money to treat with the hopelessness of that institutional treatment reserved to the most afflicted who could not be cured.

Those who made these criticisms are not even right from the utilitarian point of view much less from the humanitarian aspect of the problem. One who has had any experience at all with tuberculosis as a physician or as a social worker will know that the consumptive no matter in what stage of the disease, if he is untrained and unaided, for constitutes a great menace to his neighborhood and to his home. It must be evident that if the patient is confined all the time to his bed the danger of his constituting a center of infection in a crowded bedroom, often without light and air, is very great. Such a patient, because he is not taken care of at the right time and in the right place, costs a good deal more in the end, and not infrequently additional lives are sacrificed through his condition and environment. This is my answer from the utilitarian point of view to the statement that it is a useless expenditure to take care of the seemingly hopeless cases.

THE CITY OF JENKINS.

The city of Jenkins is not on the map, but according to a dispatch from Washington, it is making progress. A post-office has been established there and the postmaster by this time probably has his commission in his inside pocket.

The city of Jenkins, we are informed, is going to make a high-water mark record for growth. At present it is in the woods, but the railroad is coming and already the whistle of the work train is waking the echoes in the erstwhile trackless forests that surround the coming urban wonder.

The city of Jenkins is somewhere in Letcher county or in Pike county, or in both. For anything that the rest of the State knows the postoffice may be located in the postmaster's hat, or in one of his capacious pockets, for we are told in a Washington dispatch that the site of Jenkins, Ky., is today unoccupied, covered by a "practical forest." Just there be any lots of the postmaster getting lost in this mountain wilderness the information is volunteered that active operations in city building are to begin next week when "The Consolidated Coal Company, of which Senator Watson, of West Virginia, is the head will erect 2,000 homes for miners."

The city of Jenkins expects to have a population of 10,000 within six months. Should that expectation be realized the city of Jenkins will have beaten all the other cities of Eastern Kentucky to a standstill. It may be so. Strange things are happening in the mountains and Mr. Watson and Mr. Mayo are both wonder workers. The name Jenkins is substantial rather than euphonious. It doesn't sound metropolitan, but for all around purposes it is better than Watsonburg or Mayu. What matters it that we of Louisville do not know whether Jenkins is "the new town on Looey" or the coal opening on Tackett's Branch, or, as the Washington dispatch would seem to indicate, is just lying around loose in the woods? We may be assured that the firm of Watson & Mayo knows what it is driving at, and that the city of Jenkins will be known of all the world in due time.—Courier-Journal.

HAVE YOUR SHEEP SCAB?

Two remedies for the elimination of scab among the sheep of Kentucky were officially determined upon by the Kentucky State Livestock Sanitary Board, and in the future the board will recommend the use of a preparation of lime and sulphur or a mixture of tobacco and other ingredients. These remedies were recommended by Dr. Payne, of the Government Bureau of Animal Industry, and were selected by the Kentucky board from 150 prescriptions received from various parts of the country. It is said these two remedies have been used with better results throughout the country than any tried under the supervision of the United States Government in its efforts to eliminate the disease from among the sheep of the country.

A BIT OF ADVICE.

First Don't Delay. Second Don't Experiment.

If you suffer from backache; headaches or dizzy spells; if you rest poorly and are languid in the mornings; if the kidneys secrete irregular and unnatural in appearance, do not delay. The kidneys are calling for help. Slight symptoms of kidney trouble are but forerunners of more serious complaints. They should be given attention before it is too late.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure kidney trouble. They are recommended by thousands. Can Louisa residents desire more convincing proof than the statement of a Louisa citizen?

Kidney Pills effected years ago has proven permanent.

Mrs. C. A. Evans, of Louisa, Ky., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills gave such entire satisfaction in our family that in January 1908, I publicly recommended them."

Pills were used for a week back, caused by disordered kidneys and they made a complete and permanent cure. I willingly allow the continued publication of my former testimonial."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co. Ref. also New York sole agents for the United States.

DIED IN IRONTON.

Forest Stapleton a young farmer from Cliff, Floyd county, who was taken to Ironton, seriously ill last Thursday, where he was operated on for peritonitis, died Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Stapleton was 18 years of age, and had just been married a short time. His father, whose home is at Irontonburg, was with him at the time of his death, having accompanied him last Thursday. When it was seen that death was inevitable, his mother was sent for, but did not get there. The remains were taken to Irontonburg for burial.

THE COAL COMPANY WINS.

In Circuit Court last week the case of Hardwick & Wilson against the Louisa Coal Company was decided in favor of the latter, with judgment against the plaintiffs for costs. The suit was for $2000 damages for alleged failure of the company to keep the plaintiffs steadily employed during a period of time in which they were sawing lumber for the company. It has been on hands for several terms of court.

SALE OF TIMBER LAND.

J. E. McCall and M. R. Col. Hinesworth, both well known timbermen of Catlettsburg, have closed one of the largest timber deals that ever took place in Southern West Virginia.

This tract of timber is said to be the largest on the Tug river. The deal includes two thousand acres of timber at Nolan on Swing Camp Branch. There is estimated to be about ten million feet of the timber and was purchased for $50,000 from Tandy Lowe and Allice Stepp. The tract of land has been in a judicial contest for many years, but now being settled. Catlettsburg Tribune.

SHOULD TAKE LESSONS.

The Catlettsburg police headquarters on Louisa street were destroyed by fire last Thursday morning, involving a loss of about three thousand dollars. The origin of the fire is unknown. The published account of the blaze leads one to the conclusion that the fire "department" of the Gate City could study with profit the real thing is the city at The Forks.

"PRIDE GOETH BEFORE DESTRUCTION"

II Chronicles 26:1-21—May 7
"Pride goeth before destruction and a haughty spirit before a fall."—Proverbs 16:18

A GREAT and prosperous king in Jerusalem was Uzziah. He made a good beginning, was reverential toward God and put his capital and the remainder of his kingdom into a good condition for defense against enemies. When thinking of the wars of Israel we are to remember that this nation for a time represented God's rule in the earth in a sense that no other nation ever did, either before or after them.

Israel's kings were anointed by Divine commission and authority, as were no other kings, and they were said to "sit upon the Throne of the Kingdom of the Lord," as no other kings before or since have held dominion. There was not, however, the Kingdom of God for which we pray, "Thy Kingdom come; thy will be done on earth," but merely a preparatory arrangement with the typical Israelites.

He Shall Reign For a Thousand Years

God's Kingdom will really come to earth after Messiah shall establish it. For a thousand years He shall reign to uplift the humble and to bless all who seek righteousness and to punish and correct all others and finally to destroy the incorrigible in the Second Death. It was, therefore, quite in line with the arrangements of that time that the kings of Israel and Judah should fortify and strengthen themselves and defend the land which the Almighty had specially given to their nation.

The truthfulness of our text was illustrated in King Uzziah when his fame had spread abroad and he began to feel his greatness. Pride came in; he forgot that he was merely the Lord's representative in the kingdom. Having accomplished great things from a political and military standpoint, Uzziah essayed to a religious distinction. He evidently felt that God was proud of him and would be very pleased to have him enter the temple after the manner of the priests and offer incense at the Golden Altar. He knew of the rules governing the temple and its service, but considered himself above them. He would go direct to God and not recognize the priest.

There is but the One Way of Approach to God

Many successful people fall into the same error of supposing that their success in business or in politics, their brilliancy of mind, or their polish of education are the only requisites in the sight of Jehovah. They feel that if they go to Church and acknowledge God, God should be very proud to have them and, of course, should give them the first place in everything. This is a mistake. The great King Eternal, "the Lofly One that Inhabits Eternity," has rules and regulations governing all attempts to approach Him. There is the one way of approach and no other.

King Uzziah knew of the Divine arrangement, that his prayers as incense could be offered to the Almighty on the "Golden Altar" only by the priest, so those who now have come to a realization of the fact that Jesus is the great antitypical Priest through whom communication with the Father has been opened up would come under condemnation should they intrude into the Divine presence in prayer, otherwise than as provided in the Divine arrangement, as King Uzziah was smitten with leprosy for his presumption and pride.

A Lesson of Humility

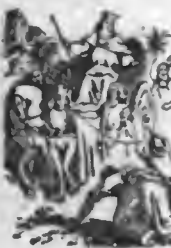

"Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the Word of Truth." (2 Tim. 2:15) The lesson seems to be one of humility, both for the Church and the world. Some are born humble-minded and others self-conceited. Humility is important, not only on its own account, but also because the other graces of the Holy Spirit cannot be cultivated without it. The Apostle begins the list of these spiritual graces with meekness.

How could one be patient and submissive in the trials and difficulties of life if not meek? How could one be kind toward opponents and in all things if he were not meek? How could one be patient toward all if he were not meek? How could one be Godlike without meekness? How could one be loving in the Scriptural sense without meekness?

Along these lines all who will be of the Church will be tested. Meekness and humility must be cultivated and must abound in the heart in order to enable the cultivation of the other fruits of the Spirit.

Uzziah's Leprosy.

Humility before Honor.

WEST VIRGINIA NEIGHBORS.

NEWS FROM COUNTIES JUST ACROSS THE RIVER IN WEST VIRGINIA.

In the Mingo Republican of Friday were the following additional particulars concerning the tragedy which was enacted near Matewan last Wednesday:

The shooting took place at Chaffin's home on Mate Creek, a short distance from Matewan. Immediately afterwards Chaffin mounted the horse Musick had ridden to his home and made his escape. Since was made for him Wednesday night by Sheriff W. A. Hurst and deputies but he was not found. Sheriff Hurst received a message Thursday morning to come at once to Matewan and it is believed that Chaffin will surrender himself to the authorities.

After riding Musick's horse about three-quarters of a mile up Mate Creek Chaffin turned the animal loose and took to the mountains. Some believe that he has made his way to the home of his uncle, Amos Hatfield, on Island Creek, and others think that he is hiding near the home of Cap Hatfield, another uncle, who lives opposite War Eagle.

The double tragedy is one of the most deplorable that ever occurred in Mingo county. It is not believed that either of the dead men suspected that they would have trouble when they went to Chaffin's home as Mayor Hoskins' dying statement shows beyond any doubt that Chief Musick's object was to convince Chaffin by his solemn oath that he had not invaded his home.

Back of the fatal visit of the two officials to Chaffin's home is a story bordering on the sensational. It is stated that Mrs. Musick suspected that her husband was paying too much attention to Tom Chaffin to him and fell across the other rail the car rushing train severing part of the foot, and badly crushed it.

When by standards rushed to the wounded child's assistance it was seen that part of the foot remained in the shoe. The remaining part was amputated.

On Tuesday Inst. Melvin Copley was killed out right in mine No. 2 of the Thacker Coal Mining Co., of Rose Shilling, W. Va., at nine o'clock a. m., by a fall of slate. He was employed by the Company as timber setter, and has been in the employ of the Company about 3 or 4 years. He had been called to a place to make it safe so the machine men could cut it, and while cutting off a post which was too long for height of the coal, he sat down under the loose piece of slate and it began to fall and caught him killing him instantly.

Do Ghosts Haunt Swamps?

No, Never. Its foolish to fear a fancied evil, when there are real and deadly perils to guard against in swamps and marishes, bayous, and lowlands. These are the unlarin germs that cause ague, ebills and fever, weakness, aches in the bones and muscles and may induce dandy typhoid. But Electric Bitters destroys and casts out these vicious germs from the blood. "Three bottles drove all the malaria from my system," wrote Wm. Fretwell, of Lucama, N. C. "and I've had fine health ever since." Use this safe, sure remedy, only 50c at A. M. Hughes.

HOME CIRCLE COLUMN.

COLUMN DEDICATED TO TIED MOTHERS AS THEY JOIN THE HOME CIRCLE.

Nothing can ever rob soldiers of the honor of having been soldiers in one of the most tremendous wars of all history, a war with Grant and Sherman and Hancock and Sheridan and Farragut on one side and Lee and Stonewall Jackson and Longstreet and Johnston on the other. As in Greek assemblies, when speakers would rouse the audience, they shouted "Marathon!" as if we wanted to stir you to action we would only need to speak the words "Lookout Mountain," "Chancellorsville," "Gettysburg." And though through the passage of years you are forever free from duty of enlistment, if European nations should too easily and too quickly forget the Monroe doctrine and set aggressive foot upon this continent we think your ankles would be supple again, and your arms would grow strong again, and your eye would be keen enough to follow the stars of the old flag, wherever it might lead.

They are Brothers Now.

Although the horrors of war are the more conspicuous where the conflict is between brothers a sad struggle is a long and desperate one the evidences are numerous that, underneath the passion and bitterness of our civil war, there were counter currents of kindly feeling, a spirit of genuine friendliness pervading the opposing camps. This friendliness was something deeper than the expression of mere human instinct; the combatants felt that they were indeed brothers. Acts of kindness to wounded enemies began to be noted at Bull Run, while in every campaign useless picketing was almost uniformly discounted and the men shook hands at the outposts and talked confidently of their private affairs and their trials and hardships in the army. This feeling, conflated perhaps, to men on the very front line culminated at Appomattox, where the victors shared rations with their late antagonists and generously offered them help in repairing the wastes of battle.

When the Union veterans returned to the north he did not disguise his faith in the good intentions of the southern fighting men.

The spirit that moved Lincoln to say in his last inaugural, "With malice toward none" has continued its holy influence. That which must appear to the world at large a startling anomaly, is in truth the simple principle of good-will, unfolding itself under favorable conditions. The war, that is the actual encounter on the field, taught the participants the dignity of American character.

Scatter the Flowers.

Decoration Day! The inspiration of the occasion is the inspiration of flowers and peace and beauty. At a time when the glory of the land is dominant, clad in verdure and every flag that flutters above a bulwarked grave mingles its colors with those of buds and blossoms and is a monument of God's past goodness and a prophecy of His continued mercy.

"Scatter the flowers. O why should we cherish the hate of the years gone by?

Over the grave of their enemy Scatter the flowers.

Scatter the flowers, my child, today;

Scatter the flowers where the soldiers lie;

Scatter the flowers on blue and gray;

Scatter the flowers."

"Decoration day races," "decoration day base ball," and "decoration day dances" are announcements appearing in some papers. As the day approaches for the revival of tribute to the heroism of comrades dead, such notices are not hailed with a feeling of satisfaction by old soldiers. The purposes for which the day was set apart are too sacred for approval of making the day one of jollification and hilarity. The true patriotic heart and mind never contemplated such con-

Itions when an annual memorial service was first conceived.

No man ever lived a right life who had not been chastened by a woman's love strengthened by her courage, guided by her discretion.

The place to take the true measure of a man is not the market place or the arena corner, not the forum or the field, but at his own firesides. There he lays aside his mask and you may learn whether he's limp or angel, king or cur, hero or humbug. I care not what the world says of him—whether it crown him with jewels or pelt him with bad eggs, I care never a copper what his reputation may be. If his babies dread his coming home and better half swallows her heart every time she asks him for a five dollar bill, he's a fraud of the first water, even though he prays night and morn till he is black in the face and howls hallelujah till he shakes the eternal hills.

Avoid unkind criticism. If a life be pure, let all oddities alone. If you are convinced that a not over-brilliant young man is trying to live a clean life and make an honest record in the world, don't pick him to pieces in your after-party talks, even if he is a little bit of a bore or a trifle close or rather prosy. A pure man is better than a brilliant man any day, and truth and honor make a better crown than cleverness and wit. Set your aim in this world toward the making of happy hearts and homes, as the woman spoken of in the play of "Clitoe," who "made the grass a little greener for her foot-passing over it." Strive not so much to be admired as to be loved, and seek to awaken that love in the "little ones," whom the master especially commended to our care.

Most good men have had good mothers.

The shooting occurred near what is called the Cooksey Point, near this place. Adams is seriously hurt and is not expected to live. The trouble arose over some previous trouble, and the parties began quarreling. These were Willie Jobe, a cousin to Vessie Jobe, and the Adams boy. So they went out of the house down to the well, where the shooting of Adams was done. Two physicians were called at once, but his condition is serious at this writing. THAT TAPE WORM.

Blaine, Ky., April 23, 1911.

Editor Big Sandy News:

I request this to be published in your paper:

There was a statement published in your paper by Dr. W. E. Sparks, of Willard, Ky., saying that his rivals in practice of medicine at Blaine, Ky., had influenced J. T. Griffith, of Cherokee, to have the article he had published in the News concerning the expulsion of a tape worm from him.

I want to say to my friends and readers of the News that if Dr. Sparks had not told people he was treating J. T. Griffith for tape worm and expected to get one from him and he and his brother Jim went and stayed all night with J. T. Griffith and in short time after they came home Dr. Sparks showed the worm but refused to tell where he got it, the people would not have suspected Mr. Griffith. I want to say also that I never did mention it to Mr. Griffith nor did he ever mention it to me at any time and in my opinion this doctor is responsible himself by telling he was going to expell a tape from Mr. Griffith and after showing him refused to tell where he got it.

Respectfully,

J. J. GAMBILL, JR. M. D.

The publication of this letter in the News is paid for and so must all be which may be hereafter offered touching this entirely private matter.

The first communication was published somewhat inadvertently, but having done this we could do no less than allow Dr. Sparks a reply.

K. N. C. LITERARY.

An enthusiastic and pleasant time was enjoyed by those who attended the K. N. C. Debating Society last Friday evening. J. V. Ward delighted the audience with a few of his choice solos which were liked by all. Misses Dixie and Georgie Hyington entertained the society with recitations, and Miss Marie Hyington sang a delightful solo. The debating was interesting between the phalanxes of Burton and Gartin, and Webb and Chaffin. Although oratorical waves swept over the audience, no one was injured by the shock.

The question for debate next Friday night will be on Woman Suffrage. Everybody come. A stormy time is anticipated—O. G.
